Condensed Telegrams

The anchor liner Cameronia arrived in New York from Glasgow and Liverpool after a stormy voyage.

Japan was officially informed the uan Shi Kai will be crowned Emper of China early in February.

Adjt. Gen. Stotesbury declared that no professional prize fights will be held in New York State armories.

Frank H. Dodd, head of the publishing firm of Dodd, Mead & Co., died in New York. He was 71 years old.

Nicaraguan customs receipts during October amounted to $63,800, com-pared with $77,898 for the same month

Hundreds of strikers at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet & ube Co., at East Youngstown, Ohio, returned

Two engineers and a fireman were killed in a head-on collision of Can-adian Pacific Rallway trains at Nepi-

Exports of sugar from the Philippine Islands during 1915 amounted to 208,000 tons, as compared with 235,-000 tons in 1914.

The Coast Guard cutter Seneca has abandoned the search for the Greek steamer Thessaloniki. The steamer is believed to have sunk.

in Connecticut'in Proportion to the City's Population

BELGIUM AND SERBIA

The Great Montenegrin Stronghold, Mount Lovcen, Has Fallen, According to Austrian Reports.

ADRIATIC COAST POSITIONS ARE MENACED

Battle is Raging in the Whole Northern and Eastern Frontiers of Montenegro-Austrians Are Being Assisted by Warship and the Guns of Cattaro Forts-Montenegrins Claim Austrians Are Making Use of Asphyxiating Gas Contrivances-Cold Weather Has Caused Cessation of Hostilities on Russian Front-Interest in the West is Centered in the Champagne Region.

tion of the trenches which they won in Champagne. Compulsion Bill Crisis Over.

The domestic crisis over the govern-ment's compulsion bill has become much less tense and it is now freely or will hold with Premier Asq dressed the house committee in the morning and repeated their state-ments to the senators in the afternoon.

They urged adoption of a joint res-olution introduced by Representative Curry which would empower the pres-ident to invite all nations to send del-

MILK PRODUCERS OPPOSED

EXTREMELY COLD IN THE

for the Season.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 11.—North-western states and Canada shivered oday under a cold blast from the borth that sent temperatures down to record points for the season in many sections. With a mark of 48 degrees selow zero, Battleford, Sask., held first

On the Boston and Maine Railroad-

Annual Meeting Held in Boston.

SPEAKERS FOR THE

London, Jan. 11, 19.34 p. m.—Montengro is being treated to a steam roller attack similar to that which crumpled up its friend and neighbor, Serbia. The Austrian onslaught, which has been a long time in preparation, is now being prosecuted with great violence, menacing several important positions close Mount Lovcen Has Fallen.

The great Montenegrin stronghold, Mount Lovcen, has fallen, according to tonight's Austrian official communication. The attack here has been largely assisted by Austrian warships nadhe guns of the Cattaro forts. In adtion, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to the Montenegrins say the Austrian to the Cattaro forts. In adtion, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In adtion, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In adtion, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In adtion, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Champagne Register to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Montenegrins say the Austrian to Cattaro forts. In addition, the Mo tion, the Montenegrins say the Austians made abundant use of asphyxing gas contrivances. A battle is ging on the whole of the northern at eastern frontiers of Montenegro. In the east the Montenegrins have an element of the compelled to evacuate Berane.

Situation at Mesopotamis. For the British public the latest atement regarding the situation in esopotamic will not entirely relieve

The British General Aylmer's col-umn, which is advancing to the relief of Kut-el-Amara, has met and re-pulsed a strong Turkish force, but its present position is by no means satis-factory, for it finds in front of it a present position is by no means satisfactory, for it finds in front of it a Turkish army greatly superior in numbers. Therefore, it is evident that a successful-function of the two British forces, although they are only 20 miles apart, may prove a difficult matter.

Cold Weather on Russian Front.

There have been no fresh developments on the Russian front, where the cold weather again has set in, the thermometer at some points touching 29 degrees below zero. Although for the moment the Russians have ceased their attack upon the Austro-German lines. lines from the Pripet river to the tomorrow some agreement may Bessarablan frontier, information from reached by which they will be retain-German sources is that they have not ed in the government.

CONTINENTAL ARMY. Chairman of House Military Commit- Address Senate and House Committees

efinite information of what a troubled the Woman's Peace party, headed by legislative sea the administration's Miss Jane Addams of Chicago, pleaded plans for strengthening the army have with the senate and house committee been launched upon came today when on foreign relations today to enlist the Chairman Hay of the house military committee told President Wilson he disapproved the fundamental suggesgestion of the programme, the organization of a continental army of 400, 6000 federal volunteers.

The president's reception of this expression was not disclosed. Secretary Garrison, who framed the administration's scheme, said later he had no knowledge of what had transpired at the White House and would not comment on Mr. Hay's statement. He indicated, however, that the attitude of Representative Hay before whose committee hearings on the army bill will be resumed tomorrow, would not alter the war department's insistence on its pian, in substance at lease. In following the president's lead in his annual address to congress, Mr. Garments to the senators in the afternoon. one to be settled on a non-partisan

Irish Nationalists Have Ceased to An-

London, Jan. 11, 9.47 p. m.—Opposition to the government's compulsion bill dwindled to a meagre handful in parliament today, and predictions in the lobby of the house of commons tonight were that the vote on the second reading tomorrow would find little more than 20 or 30 in opposition, as contrasted with 105 on the first reading.

The Irish nationalists today announced abandonment of their opposition in view of the fact that the bill floes not apply to Ireland. John Redmond, the veteran home rule leader, who made this announcement, shared the most prominent position in the fay's debate with his old enemy, Sir Edward Carson, who in a flery speech

Boston, Jan. 11.—The New England Milk Producers' association, at its annual meeting today, voted to contest the proposed increase in milk carrying rates on the Boston and Maine railroad. Richard Pattee, of Laconia, N. H., secretary of the association, and other shippers said that the milk situation in New England at present was the most serious the farmers had ever faced. The proposed increase, if allowed, would result in a greatly increased price for milk, they asserted. AT BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE Was Delivered by Ambassador Page-Text Withheld For Simultaneon

Washington, Jan. 11.—Ambassador Page at London today advised the tate department that he had delivered to the British foreign office the American note regarding the detention and ensoring by the British authorities of mail from the United States to

Cabled Paragraphs

The Bulletin's Circulation in Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Lar

Eminent Italian Dector Dead. Rome, Jan. 10, 10.55 p. m.—Dr. Guido Vaccelli, for many years professor of medicine in the University of Rome and once minister of public instruction in the Italian cabinet, died today. He was 84 years old.

French Parliament in Session Paris, Jan. 11, 8 p. m.—The 1916 session of parliament opened this afternoon in the chamber of deputies, with Baron de Mackau, dean of the chamber, presiding. Paul Deschanel was reelected president of the chamber.

PLANNING A PAGEANT TO BE HELD IN YALE BOWL

nemorate 200th Anniversary of Coming of University to New

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 11.—Announcement of the preliminary arrangements for a pageant in the Yale Bowl on October 21st next to com-Bowl on October 21st next to com-memorate the 200th anniversary of the coming of Yale to New Haven, was made by Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, secretary of the university, today. Francis Hartman Markee, of London and New York city and of the class of 1906, has been appointed pageant master. Mr. Markee wrote the masque for the pageant at the University of Oxford a few years ago and was as-sociated with Frank Lascelles in the coronation pageant in London and he also organized the South African pathe affair will be: Secretary Stokes, chairman Ell Whitney of New Haven, Rev. Joseph Anderson of Woodmont and Vance McCormick of Harrisburg, from the corporation J. Benja-Dimmick, of Scranton, from the alumni advisory board Dean Jones from the college; Director Chittenden from the scientific school; Dean Parker of the music department, Director Kendali of the Fine Arts school and Librarian J. C. Schwab.

On the evening of October 20, the founding the projectory of the founding the contractory of the contractor of the evening of cooper 2, the founding of the fine arts school will be observed with an address by Professor J. F. Weir, director-emeritus. On the next morning there will be exercises in Woolsey hall, in the afternoon the agreent and in the evening a public nothing casual or ordinary about the big German attack which the French claimed they successfully stopped. The French lines here make a tempting salient, but the position evidently has been made correspondingly strong.

Paris claims that the French by vis-orous counter-attacks expelled the Germans from all except a small sec-Tell of Information Telegraphed the Austrian Consul General.

Paris, Jan. 11, 4.55 p. m .- Nur us extracts from documents seized a aloniki when the consuls of the Teu Saloniki when the consuls of the Teutonic allies were arrested there recently were printed in this morning's newspapers. Among the papers, according to the published statements, were copies of daily reports telegraphed to Vienna by the Austrian consulgeneral giving the numbers and description of allied troops that were landing at Seloniki reports of sples on the movements of allied forces into the interior and records of payments the interior and records of payments to these spies and to local newspa-

The system of espionage, the Greece and among the published papers there are what purport to be copies of reports made by agents at Sreek military centers and by Fort unctionaries. "A good friend of Gerfunctionaries. "A good friend of Ger-many can be trusted," is a sentence printed as being taken from one of the eports made regarding a certain pre-ect, while a certain officer was classed state department, provide that Amercans must produce their birth certificates or naturalization papers in applying for a vise of their passports by German agents. Passports of natural-ized citizens whose native countries are at war with Germany and women who before marriage were citizens of such countries, it was said, would be vised only upon special permission of the German government.

GERMANY'S STRINGENT

German officials will vise passports, Count Von Bernstorff said, for travel to Germany only when such trive are to Germany only when such trips are unobjectionable and necessary and the business contemplated cannot well be consummated by correspondence. Passports for enemy country in possession of German troops will not be granted.

APPLES MORE PLENTIFUL

Supply 10 Per Cent. Greater-3,801,000 Barrels, 3,049,000 Boxes.

ident to invite all nations to send delegates to a convention to provide for disarmament, create an international legislature, court, army and police.

Introduced by Chairman Stone, chairman of the committee, as the official peace disciple of the senate, Senator John Sharp Williams told the peace advocates that, as instructive as their addresses had been, they had failed to convince him that the great body of American women believed that peace took precedence over all national virtues. Washington, Jan. 11.—The country's tore of apples on January 11 was bout ten per cent. larger than it was about ten per cent, larger than it was a year ago. A statement issued today by the department of agriculture said that this was true, despite the fact that the supply decreased 12 per cent. during December. The figures show that 3,801,000 barrels and 3,049,000 boxes of apples comprised the country's supply the first of the year.

Mrs. Mary Simms,

Paris, Kentucky, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Lucy Simms, widow of W. W. Simms, a member of the Confederate congress and reputed to be Kentucky's richest woman, died here today. She was 73 years of age and was known throughout the south for her philanthropic work.

Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 11.—George L. Lyon, 34, of Durham, N. C., ama-teur champion trap shooter, died here today of tuberculosis. He had been a resident of the city five weeks and was but recently elevated to the thirty-third degree in Masonry. Lyon was twice amateur champion trap shooter of the United States and four years ago was a member of the American team at the Olympic games in Stock-holm.

Mexican Bandits Progressives Stick Kill 16 Americans to Old Principles

EXECUTION.

ONE MADE HIS ESCAPE IN CHICAGO, JUNE

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 11.—Seventeen persons, all thought to be Americans, returning from Chihuahua City to reopen mines at Cusihuirlachio, Chihuahua, were taken from a Mexican Northwestern train yesterday by bandits, stripped and lined up along the track for execution, according to a message received here today from Thomas M. Holmes, one of the seventeen, who made his escape.

Whether the execution of the remaining 16 Americans was carried out

Almost immediately after the first news of the raid was received a cen-sorship was imposed on the wires besorship was imposed on the wires be-tween Juarez and Chiffuahua City by the Carranza officials. This action was taken .it was said, "until the story could be verified from official Mexican

How One Man Escaped According to the brief messages re-ceived here, the train bearing the Americans was stopped by the bandits at Kilometer, about fifty miles west of Chihuahua City. The mining men were taken from the train, robbed, stripped naked and lined up along the cars for execution. Holmes, it is sail, was on the extreme end of the line. Woolsey hall, in the afternoon the pageant and in the evening a public banquet. On the 22nd there will be special services in the city churches. The detail programme will call for many special features. In the pageant school children, citizens and Yale men will take part, depicting scenes from the early life of Yale.

ETRACTS FROM DOCUMENTS

SEIZED AT SALONIKI sound of firing.

He succeeded in reaching friendly
Mexicans, it is reported and was aided back to Chihuahua City.

Consternation at El Paso. News of the raid caused consternation here as many of the families of the men supposed to have been on board the raided train reside here.

A verified list of American mining men in Chihuahua was prepared here from records of Mexican passports issued. The list contained 18 names and as Holmes' message places the number taken from the train as 17, it is presumed one remained in Chihua-News of the raid caused consterns

NO OFFICIAL ADVICES AT STATE DEPARTMENT Authorities Hoping That Report Will Prove Erronoeus.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Reports from El Paso that sixteen Americans were killed west of Chihuahua by Villa bankilled west of Chihuahua by Villa bandits will, if confirmed, result in urgent representations by the United States to Carranza to increase his efforts to capture Villa or destroy his forces. No official advices regarding the affair had been received at the state department tonight and officials were hopeful that the report received in El Paso by the American Smelting and Refining company might prove erroneous.

and Refining company might prove erroneous.

After it became evident that Vilia did not intend to cross the international boundary line into the United States and stop fighting when the greater part of his army went over to Carranza, General Obregon assured agents of the American government that troops would be dispatched at once to hunt him down. Most of the troops sent after Villia, however, have been used since in garrisoning towns along the northwestern railroad.

No action will be taken by the United States in the case of the killing of Peter Keane in Chihuahua by General Medinvieta. Secretary Lansing said today that since Keane was ing of Peter Keane in Chihuahua by General Medinvieta. Secretary Lansing said today that since Keane was a British subject it appeared proper that any representations that were made should be by Great Britain, which has recognized the de facto Mexican government.

Medinavieta formerly was one of Villa's generals, but later was reported to have surrendered with his forces to Carranga.

Currency on the Train. El Paso, Tex., Jan. 11.—The train on which the Americans were travel-ing from Chihuahua City to Cusihuiri-achic, Chihuahua, carried thousands of dollars in currency and a large quan-tity of supplies sent by the American Smelting and Refining company to its CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK

Representatives of Industries Affected

New York, Jan. 11.—Following a conference here of representatives of organizations and industries affected by the dyestuffs shortage resulting from the European war, David Kirschbaum, president of the National Association of Clothiers, today announced the appointment of a committee to confer with President Wilson, Secretary of State Lansing, the German ambassador and other officials in Washington. The committee will endeavor to have the government reopen negotiations with Germany for open negotiations with Germany for the shipment of dyestuffs to this coun-try as well as seek an arrangement with Great Britain whereby some com-modity may be shipped from the United States into Germany in exago was a member of the American team at the Olympic games in Stockholm.

Embargo on Jamaican Logwood Lifted Washington, Jan. 11.—American Consul Monaghan at Kingston, cabled the state department todal that the British government had lifted its embargo on Jamaican logwood extract exports. No details were given.

United States into Germany in exchange for dyes.

While in Washington, the committee will appear before the ways and means committee of the house of representatives, it was said and urge the passage of a bill introduced by Congressman Hill, of Connecticut, for the protection of the dye manufacturing industry so that it may be built up in this country without fear of foreign encroachment after the European war.

STRIPPED AND LINED UP FOR CONVENTION SAME TIME AND PLACE AS REPUBLICAN.

Same Candidate for President-To Event-Roosevelt Sends Letter.

whether the execution of the remaining 16 Americans was carried out is not known definitely here but it is feared all weer killed.

It is supposed the bandits belonged to the forces of General Jose Rodriguez, a Villa supporter known to be operating in Chihuahua against the defacto government.

Censorship of Despatches.

Almost immediately after the first news of the raid was received a centrely as a mobilization of all the country's news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was received a centrely after the first news of the raid was critically after the first news of the forty-eight states were represented at the meeting. Before adjourning the committee adopted a declaration of principles in which the administration of President Wilson the administration of President Wilson the administration of principles in which the administration of president Wilson the administration of president will be a declaration of principles in which the administration of president was critically a declaration of principles in which the administration of president will be a declaration of president will be a resources with a view of the unifica-tion of American citizenship. A message was read from Theodore Roosevelt urging the necessity of ade quate preparedness v siastically applauded To Nominate a National Ticket. Progressive leaders declared that the republican party even in the event of both parties choosing the same presidential candidate. The progressive party plans to nominate a nation al ticket at its convention in June.

Roosevelt Not Essential.

Many of the party leaders declared that if the republicans will nominate Roosevelt-or any other man who is regarded as unobjectionable and will regarded as unobjectionable and will incorporate in its platform the calient features of the progressive principles, both parties will unite on the same candidates next June.

In discussing the declaration of principles, George W. Perkins, of New York, said:

No Bluff or Threat. "The declaration issued by the na tional committee means just what it says. It was prepared with great care. There is nothing of bluff or threat in it. It is an honest and fair statement of the situation.

"The men here today, representing 47 of the 48 states in the union, realat of the 48 states in the union, realized that our country is facing a crisis and to the best of our ability and with a spirit of placing the needs of our country beyond the interests of our party, we have tried to do our full share toward helping outline a programme that we believe will go very far toward meeting the views of a far toward meeting the views of majority of right-thinking people.

"We are all hoping that both the progressive and the republican parties will agree on a candidate and it neceswill agree on a candidate and it necessarily will not have to be Colonel Roosevelt. We are not thinking of the name of the candidate just now, The time for the convention is several months away and in these days (Continued on Page Six)

as a Candidate for Nomination.

BARNES NOT DELEGATE TO REPUBLICAN NAT. CONVENTION Because of Possibility of Roosevelt

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 11.—William Barnes, of Albany, former chairman of the republican state committee, said of the republican state committee, said tonight that he would not go to the republican national convention as a delegate-at-large because he believed it would be injudicious in view of the possibility of Theodore Roosevelt as a candidate for the presidential nomination. This determination, he communicated to Frederick C. Tanner, chairman of the state committee, in a letter announcing that the republichairman of the state committee, in a letter announcing that the republican congressional committee for the 28th district at a meeting today selected E. J. Staley and State Senator Henry M. Sage of this city as the district delegates to be voted for at the primary election, April 4th. In this connection, Mr. Barnes wrote:

"Lest this action should lead to the informace that the republican state convention will suggest me as one of the four delegates-at-large, I am writing to advise you of my determination not to go to the convention as a delegate.

"Fowerful influences are at work to bring about the nomination of Mr.

"Fowerful influences are at work to bring about the nomination of Mr. Rooseveit. That this should be prevented, I am confident is the opinion of all sane men and women. If we are to prepare for defense, as Mr. Rooseveit himself properly urges, it would be irrational to place the power thus created in the hands of one who would litch to use it.

created in the hands of one who would litch to use it.

"In view of the contention which I foresee will come before the national convention over the Roosevelt candidacy, it would be injudicious for me to be a delegate. The New York delegation, which I assume will be a unit against Mr. Roosevelt's perennial ambitions, should not be open to the charge that any personal element was involved in its action.

"I shall be at Chicago as a member of the national committee from this state to perform such duties as properly devolve upon me."

banquet on banquet on banquet on banquet on beautiful to be held its was recent after serving the was recent after s properly devolve upon me.'

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 11.—Arjutant General George M. Cole of the Connecticut National Guard announced today that a special election will be held to fill the vacancy of chief surgeon, caused by the recent death of Dr. Joseph H. Townsend of New Haven, Baliots will be counted at Hartford on January 20,

New York, Jan. 11.—Arrived, steamer Orduna, Liverpool. Sailed, steamer San Guslielmo, Naples.
Genoa, Jan. 8.—Arrived, steamer

MOHR TRIAL PROSECUTION OUTL An elevator to hold 1,000,000 bushels of grain will be erected at Fort William, Ont.

One billion and a quarter feet of lumber was logged in British Columbia for the year 1915. Prepared to Show That Mrs. Mohr Incited the Negroes to Slay Her Husband.

DESCRIBED AS A DESPERATE, JEALOUS WOMAN

Was Worried By the Divorce Suit That Was Pending and Feared That Dr. Mohr Was Going to Put All His Money in the Name of Miss Emily G. Burger, His Secretary-Prosecutor Asserted That Evidence Would Be Presented to Show That the Doctor Was to Have Been Killed Three Nights Before the Date of the Murder-Chauffeur Healis Will Be a Witness For the State-Jury Has Viewed the Scene of the Crime.

Griffin, was also heard.

No member of the Greek Royal family has yet visited or written to King Peter of Serbia who is at Sal-onica, on Greek soil. A wage increase of 10 per cent. to all employes except those working on salary and tonnage was announced by the Cambria Steel Co.

There was a great rejoicing in Constantinople over the abandonment of the British attack, prayers being recited in all the Mosques. Surger, his secretary.

More than 6,000 employes of the Pennsylvania Steel Co., at Steelton, Pa., will receive an increase in wages of 10 per cent. on Feb. 1. About 200 South and Central American delegates to the Pan-American Scientific Congress, left Washington on a tour of eastern cities.

Three hundred employes of the Car-negie Steel Co., at Farrel, Pa., walked out, demanding a nincrease in wages from 19 to 25 cents per hour. The funeral of Charles G. Knapp, treasurer of the New York Times, and former publisher of the St. Louis "Re-public," was held in St. Louis.

Articles of incorporation were filed at Ottawa, Canada, by the Canada Nitro Products, Ltd., capital, $5,000,-000, to manufacture war munitions. Experiments in growing hemp for cordage purposes will be undertaken in the western Canadian provinces with seed imported from Kentucky.

Emperor William has so far re-covered from the recent operation on his throat that he will resume work

A dispatch from Oakland, Cal., states that the Standard Shipbuilding Corporation will invest $25,000,000 in a shipbuilding plant to be established Great Britain and her allies have given permission to the American Red Cross to ship its accumulation of hos-

A report from Fall River, Mass., states that the Cotton Manufacturers' Association is opposed to the 10 per cent, wage increase asked At the request of Solicitor General Davis the Supreme Court set the gov-ernment case against the Reading Coal combination for argument on Four persons were seriously injured when ten pounds of flashlight powder exploded and wrecked the house of Charles Mills, a photographer, at Had-Luther Jordan, widely known lumber manufacturing circles for the last 35 years ided at his home at St. John, N. B. He was a native of Mariaville, Me. About 700 men who went on strike at the Jersey City, N. J., plant of the Crucible Steel Co., returned to work, the management promising to consider

Edward A. Bowers of New Haven, has been appointed by Gov. Holcomb a delegate to the meeting of the American Forestry association in Bos-

A delegation of Baltimore business men invited President Wilson to ad-dress the Baltimore Merchants & Man-ufacturers Association at its annual Porter Charlton, the American who was recently released from prison after serving a brief term for killing his wife, will leave Naples for New York today aboard the steamer Amer-

Gov. Holcomb has appointed B. C. Wilson of Southington a delegate from this state to the national conference of immigration and Americanization to be held in Philadelphia, January

Jewelry valued at $25,000, belonging to Lieut.-Commander William P. Cronan, U. S. N., formerly of New Haven, was stolen from a trunk on a train between Overbrook, Pa., and

According to an official estimate made yesterday, the value of prperty in Germany owned by subjects of Great Britain is approximately £72-000,000. The value of German-owned

To Show Negroes Were Incited. Abbott Phillips, assistant attorney general, in recounting the circumstances of the death of Dr. Mohr, declared that the prosecution was prepared to show that Mrs. Mohr incited the negroes to slay her husband be-cause she was "worried" by the divorce suit that was pending and also feared that Dr. Mohr was going to put all his money in the name of Miss Emily G.

Powerful Motives for Mrs. Mohr. "There were several strong and powerful motives for Mrs. Mohr to want her husband killed," said Mr. Phillips. "She was a desperate woman and we will show you that she was ex-tremely jealous of Miss Burger."

Story of the Attack. Mr. Phillips said that Dr. Mohr was Mr. Phillips said that Dr. Mohr was attacked on Aug. 31, 1915, while in an automobile on his way from this city to his Newport residence, accompanied by Miss Burger; that the negro chauffeur, George W. Healis, stopped the car while passing through a stretch of woods near Barrington and that the doctor and Miss Burger were shot from ambush. The chauffeur picked Miss Burger up after the shooting. Mr. Phillips said, and carried her to the side of the road. She recovered from her wounds, but Dr. Mohr died the next morning at the hospital. Healis Will Be Witness for State.

"Healis will be a witness for the state," went on Mr. Phillips. "He stopped the car on the darkest spot in the road. We will show you that Brown and Healis had been there previously and had arranged things by putting a branch of a tree at the side of the road so that Healis would know where Brown and Spellman were to Healis Will Be Witness for State.

NEW EMBARGO NOTICE BY NEW HAVEN ROAD. Livestock, Perishables, Foodstuffs and

Boston, Jan. 11.—The New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and the Central New England railway isthe Central New England railway is sued today to connecting lines an embargo notice which becomes effective Jan. 13 and supersedes all notices previously issued. The embargo applies to all carload and less than carload freight, originating west of the Hudson river and north of the international boundary line, destined to all points on or by way of the two roads affected, except livestock, perishables, foodstuffs for human consumption, feed for livestock, coal, coke and petroleum tivestock, coal, coke and petroleum products in tank cars.

The notice alos applies to business from west of the Hudson river moving in connection with the New England Steamship company to points on the New Haven and business coming by way of coastwips steamship lines. way of coastwise steamship lines.

THE PHILIPPINE BILL Declares Natives Are Not Fully Cap-

Washington, Jan. 11.—Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island, a minority member of the Philippine committee, spoke in the senate today against the Philippine self-government extension bill. He declared that democrats wanted to get rid of the Philippines, but that the republican party realized the responsibility of the nation for the islanders, which must be retained until they were fully capable of self-government. A vote on the bill may be reached tomorrow.

CLAIMED TO HAVE BROUGHT ABOUT 20,000 MARRIAGES

New York, Jan. 11.—Fritz Podzius, widely known as "Cupid Podzius," editor of the Matrimonial News, who claimed to have brought about the claimed to have brought about the marriages of 20,000 couples, died here today.

Podzius published his matrimonial newspaper in this city for the last eight years and also issued a Berlin copy called the Heirats Zeitung. He was a bachelor and lived as a recluse, sussisting mainly on apples and tea.

Middletown, Conn., Jan. 11.—Oliver S. Brainard, 78 years old, a veteran of the Civil war died at the local hospital property in Great Britain was given as £195,000,000.

The right of the United States to revoke a permit was upheld in a decision by Judge R. E. Lewis, of the federal district court, at Denver, Col., ordering the Colorado Power Company to pay a monthly rental of $190 for government land in Garfield County, Col., on which its power plant is located.

Providence, R. I., Jan. 11.—An out-line of the facts the state expects to prove in the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr and two negroes, Cevil V. Brown and Henry H. Spellman, charged with the murder of Dr. C. Franklin Mohr. the woman's husband, was presented to the jury today. The testimony of one witness, Medical Examiner C. H. Griffin, was also heard.

March of 1914 and thercuster we will show you," said Mr. Phillips, "Mrs. Mohr interviewed the negroes from time to time and also talked with the doctor's office girl, Miss Florence the doctor went around with, especially to see if he was with Miss Burger." Was to Have Been Killed Three Nights

Before. The prosecutor asserted that evidence would be presented to show that the doctor was to have been killed three nights before the date of the the doctor was to have been killed three nights before the date of the murder, but that Halis, who has now turned stat'es evidence, found that in-stead of having Miss Burger in the machine with the doctor that night, he had a Miss Wilson and Miss Ormsby, and therefore he not one ill seed set.

and therefore he put on all speed he came to the place where the negroes were lying in ambush. Mrs. Mohr Upbraided Healis. "Mrs. Mohr, we will show you," con-tinued Mr. Phillips, "sent for Healis and upbraided him for not stopping the car on that night; told him her divorce petition was coming up and that the murder had to be pulled off without delay."

Testimony of Medical Examiner.

The testimony of Dr. Clifford H. Griffin, the medical examiner, who performed an autopsy on the body of Dr. Mohr, was designed to hrow light on the question of how new the assassins stood and what position they were in relative to the car. Dr. Griffin said that the revolver must have been held below the level on which Dr. Mohr was and pointed upwards in order to have the bullets take the course shown by the autopsy. He approximated the distance the revolver was held from the doctor's head as one or two feet, judging from the burned edges of the wounds. Jury Viewed Scene of Crime

The early part of the day was spe by the jury in viewing the scene the crime. August D. Mohr and Mrs. Ella Ho-where Brown and Spellman were to brother and sister, arrived here today and it was announced that they would "Dr. Mohr and his wife separated in testify for the defense. DECISION RESERVED IN SILVER STRIKERS' CASE.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 11.—Decision by Judge James H. Webb on the petition of the International Silver company for an injunction to run against its former employes, certain labor organizations and individuals to restrain them from interference with the company's business and present employes, was reserved this afternoon upon the conclusion of the arguments. The court said it would give due and careful consideration not only to the avidence but to the many authorities cited by counsel for both sides.

PRESIDENT AND MANAGER Of the Dupont Powder Company-

Trouble Over Transfer of Securi-

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 11.—The fight among the stockholders of the Dupont Powder company over the transfer of the securities of the corporation, formerly owned by T. Coleman Dupont, which are valued at about $6,000,000, reached an interesting stage today when official announcement was made that Alfred I. Dupont had been deposed as vice president and general manager of the company by the directors at a meeting yesterday.

The announcement of the action of the directors followed closely the filing in the United States district court here yesterday of a petition by Alfred I. Dupont asking permission to become a party to the suit filed by Philip F. Dupont signing Pierre E. Dupont, president of the company, certain directors and others interested in the concern. It came as a surprise to the said forgrantice. in the concern. It came as a sur to those not having inside inform of the trouble among the officers stockholders of the powder com ng the officers and

IN YUNNAN, CHINA, CHECKED

Rebeis Defeated by Government Troops in Several Engagements. New York, Jen. 11.—A cablegram received from Peking today by the Far Eastern bureau says that the revolutionary outbreak in the province of Yunnan, China, has received a severe check at the hands of government troops, which have defeated the rebels in several engagements and captured positions which they had occupied. It is said the rebels are now split into several parties, none of them strong and that the governor of Kwang-Si province is cooperating with the government troops of Yunnan in the campaign against them.